

WILDTHINGS FORUM #5

PROTECTION OF OUR ENVIRONMENTAL HERITAGE AND HABITAT FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

18 August 2019 Sunday
12 noon to 5pm
Turrumurra Masonic Hall

Cnr Turrumurra Ave. & Pacific Highway (Near Car Park) TURRAMURRA

- 12:00 – 12:10 Welcome and Introductions Chris Smallbone
- 12:10 – 12:40 Ku-ring-gai Council Initiatives Through the Environmental Levy David Towns
- 12:40 – 13:10 The Role of the Better Planning Network (BPN) Sue Ingham
- 13:10 – 13:40 Environmental Defenders Office (EDO) Initiatives on Legislation Jemilah Halliman
- 13:40 – 14:10 Case Study - Forest in Danger Jan Primrose
- 14:10 – 14:40 The Wilderness Society's Movement for Life-Deforestation and New Nature Laws Campaigns Garth Newton
- 14:40 – 15:10 Refreshments, Activities and Displays
- 15:10 – 15:40 Challenges and Solutions for Sustainability of Endangered Species Jayden Walsh
- 15:40 – 16:05 Rewilding Ku-ring-gai - Benefits and Challenges Peter Clarke
- 16:05 – 16:25 Hollows, Small Bird Habitat, Bug Hotels, Bandicoot Bungalows Chris Smallbone
- 16:25 – 17:00 Discussion, Resolution and Future Actions All Participants

Door Prize Draws PLUS Activities & Displays throughout the afternoon

Supported by Ku-ring-gai Council

Event Registration

Entry: Make a $note donation (door prize) and/or join WildThings NSW (Annual membership: $25 per household)

Please assist our planning by registering your interest in this event – it's easy and free. More event details: wildthings.org.au

- Online: <https://www.trybooking.com/533359> (enter WILDTHINGS NSW FORUM)
- Mail: WildThings NSW, PO Box 58, Gordon, NSW 2072 (complete & send details below)
- Email: wildthingsnsw1@gmail.com (include names of attendees & a contact number)

Name :Number of People in Booking:

Email: Suburb

Are you a member of STEP/The Wilderness Society/Taronga Zoo/FOKE/Other

Disclaimer: WildThings NSW reserves the right to cancel the event due to insufficient registrations or other reasons beyond its control. WildThings NSW also reserves the right to refuse registration. Programme is subject to change.